GREAT DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING AT INDIANAPOLIS, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 18th.

Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, of Illinois, will be in attendance and will address the meeting. Gen. Sam. Houston, of Texas; Gen. Wm. O. Butler, of Ky.; Gen. John Lane, of Oregon; Col. John B. Weller, of California; Gen. Pickens, of Ky.; Hon. Jesse D. Bright, Hon. John W. Davis, Hon. A. P. Willard, Hon. John L. Robinson, Hon. C. L. Dunham, Hon. Willis A. Gorman, Hon. D. Mace, Hon. G. N. Fitch, and other distinguished speakers have been invited, and we have the assurance that most of them will be in attendance.

Come, let us have a grand council. Let the people all come—come in cars—in wagons—on horse-back, and on foot, and bring your wives and children.

W. J. BROWN, Chairman.

J. P. DRAKE,

A. G. PORTER,

WM. STEWART,

N. BOLTON,

A. F. MORRISON,

JOHN CAIN,

A. D. GALL,

State Central Committee.

"It is in your power to carry this State at the approaching elections. Let no one become discouraged because of former defeats. A majority of the voters of this State, we are very confident, desire the election of Gen. Scott, and if they can all be brought to the polls, the electoral vote of the State will be given to him."—Indiana Journal.

"A thousand cheers and votes to spare for Winfield Scott."—N. Y. Times.

"Iowa is safe for Scott and Graham."—Whig papers.

"Reed was elected in North Carolina upon the free suffrage question and his own personal popularity. National politics did not enter into the canvass at all. The old North State is perfectly safe for the Whig nominees."—Id.

"That Scott will be elected we have never entertained a doubt."—N. Y. Tribune.

"Ohio will be all right in November."—Ohio State Journal.

"There comes the dawning of a brighter day. Men of thought, and men of action, clear the way."—Id.

That post "hit the nail on the head," who said "Hope springs eternal in the human breast, Whigs never are, but always to be blest."

Since the candidates for President and Vice-President were nominated by the Whig and Democratic National Conventions, elections have been held in four States with the following results:

IOWA.

A Democratic Secretary of State!
A Democratic Auditor of State!
A Democratic Treasurer of State!
A Democratic majority of nine in the State Senate!
A Democratic majority of nineteen in the House of Representatives!

Two thousand Democratic majority on the State Ticket!
A Democratic majority of twenty-eight on Joint Ballot!

A Democratic Congressman for the First District.
Election of a Democratic Senator for four years secured.

MISSOURI.

A Democratic Governor.
A Democratic Lieutenant Governor.
A Democratic Secretary of State.
A Democratic Auditor of State.
A Democratic Attorney General.
A Democratic Treasurer of State.
A Democratic Register.

Three Democratic members of Congress out of five, being a gain of one.

A Democratic majority in both branches of the General Assembly.

A Democratic majority of 12,000 on the State Ticket.

NORTH CAROLINA.

A Democratic Governor by 6,000 majority.
A Democratic majority on Joint Ballot in the Legislature; thus securing the election of a Democratic United States Senator for six years in the place of Willie P. Mangum.

ARKANSAS.

A Democratic Governor without Whig opposition.
A majority of three to one in the Legislature.
An average majority of about 10,000 on the county tickets.

To offset these Democratic triumphs, the Whigs have achieved an immeasurable amount of bragging, boasting, and blustering, and have carried the elections two-thirds of the time, in steamboats, canal-boats, and cars, frequently by large majorities.

If the Whigs are satisfied with the canvass so far, the Democrats certainly should be. While they boast and bluster, we vote; while they carry steamboats and cars, we carry States; and while they parade any quantity of Whig votes in the newspapers, we quietly deposit them in the ballot box.

Harrah for Pierce and King!

"Has our neighbor of the Journal heard from Iowa yet? If he has, why don't he let his readers know the correct result of the recent election in that State? It would be cruel in him to let his friends die in ignorance, especially when he so innocently contributed to that ignorance."

"Hon. JEREMIAH SMITH, Judge of the present seventh circuit, declines running for Judge. His reason is that the salary ($1,000 per annum) is an insufficient one; and he brings forward strong arguments to prove his reason a good one."

More "Spitting on the Platform."

On the 17th of August Hon. Rufus Schoonmaker, a Whig member of Congress from the eleventh District in New York, made a speech in Congress in which he distinctly repudiated the authority and validity of the Platform of Principles adopted by the recent Whig National Convention. The Albany Evening Journal—Thurston Weed's paper—says:

"This speech is a reasonable and eloquent vindication of the position of the Whigs of this State."

Mr. Weed evidently thinks the Whig Platform a gull-trap to catch Southerners, while the Yankees are too "cute" to be caught in any such manner.

The Democrats of Clinton county held a large and enthusiastic convention at Frankfort, on Saturday, the 29th ult., and nominated the following ticket:

For Representative—Wilson Seawright.
For Treasurer—Jas. G. Fraser.
For Sheriff—Isaac Cook.
For Recorder—C. J. Miller.

This is a good ticket. C. J. Miller was a member of the Constitutional Convention, and will make an excellent Recorder. Clinton is good for 300 Democratic majority.

The Democrats of Fountain county, to the number of 2,500, met in convention in Chambersburg on Saturday, August 29th, and nominated the following ticket:

Senator—H. Reynolds.
Representative—John Stevens.
Treasurer—James King.
Sheriff—Z. Ferguson.

Judge of Common Pleas—D. Rawles.
Pros. Atty. Gen. Pleas—H. Claypool.
Great enthusiasm prevailed. Fountain will roll up a heavy Democratic majority at the coming elections.

The New York Courier & Enquirer (Whig) comments severely on the Whig presses, and Whig politicians, who are daily in the practice of retailing falsehood and slander upon General Pierce. The following is an extract from the article referred to. The State Journal will please copy:

"We are led to these remarks by a request to copy one of the squibs at General Pierce's fainting, which so constantly appears in one of the penny papers of our city; but we should not only hold ourselves disgraced by so doing, but would bring upon the Courier & Enquirer the odium of belonging to the same class of Presses as those referred to."

The Cincinnati Gazette says "such volunteer citizen soldiers as Pierce ought to be sneered at." Because, we suppose, he did not go into the army from an aristocratic military school, instead of the ranks of the people. It is well known that Gen. Scott and most of his Whig subordinates entertain a great contempt for "citizen soldiers" and civilians generally; but we supposed the Cincinnati Gazette was rather too cautious thus boldly to express its sentiments and the sentiments of its leader.

Rich, Decidedly.—The Whig presses are publishing various extracts from the London papers. The wish for the election of Pierce is coldly expressed. These are the same extracts that went the rounds in 1844, only that Pierce's name has been substituted for Polk's.—North River Reporter.

The editor of the Journal keeps a lot of these spurious extracts standing in the editorial columns of his paper. Wonder if our neighbor can tell where he got them from?

The Union party in Georgia have withdrawn the electoral ticket nominated by them a few weeks since. There is now but one Pierce and King electoral ticket in the field, which secures the united action of the Democratic party. The Whigs are divided between Webster and Scott. The former will, doubtless, receive much the larger number of Whig votes.

The Vincennes Gazette is out in opposition to the $5,000 appropriation made by the last Legislature to colonize the negroes of this State. Mr. McCarty voted for it.

Hon. G. H. HAVEN, formerly a Whig Representative in the Illinois Legislature from Wills county, recently, at a Democratic meeting in that county, announced his intention to support Pierce and King.

At a Boston Free-soil ratification meeting last week, John G. Palfrey announced that Hale accepts the Pittsburgh nomination.

(For the Indiana State Sentinel.)

OFFICE OF M. & I. RAILROAD CO.,
MADISON, SEPT. 2, 1882.

EDITOR SENTINEL.—I am not in the habit of noticing anonymous communications in newspapers, and have no desire to participate in the controversy now pending between the papers of this city and Indianapolis, in regard to the future prospects of the Madison road.

The locomotive of the 28th, however, suffered a correspondent, among other things, to charge this company with having paid "cooney" and other interested, to hang round the Legislature, to defeat every measure brought before it, for another and competing outlet from this city."

This statement is utterly and totally false. I have been at the head of this company for four years, and am conversant with all its affairs. I have not myself, nor any officer of the company, to my knowledge, opposed, or endeavored to defeat, the passage of any charter in the State; nor has the company ever paid, or offered to pay, one dollar to any person for any such purpose. The charge is wholly gratuitous; and as it affects me personally, I brand it as it deserves. If the writer made it ignorantly, he is no less a falsifier; if wilfully, he is worse than that.

Very respectfully,
JNO. BROUGH.

Whig Ridicule of the Irish.
The N. Y. Tribune has lately published a picture book in which Scott is represented in scenes that he was never in, and incidents that never took place. No one disputes the right of the Whigs to put Scott where his feathers make the most display; but the publishers of such a catch penny affair, have no right to ridicule other people, in elevating Gen. Scott. Those who have looked over his silly pages, must have been struck with the horrid caricature of a party of Irishmen, whom Scott is represented as standing over in lordly attitude, bestowing some favor; as if it was a monstrous condescension on the part of the Whig candidate—just as the Whig party are now pretending to be Catholics, for the sake of catching Catholic votes. The Irish American, printed in New York, thus indignantly alludes to Greeley's picture-book:

"The Whigs have issued a campaign pictorial life of Scott, which contains one of the vilest caricatures of Irishmen which ever emanated from the filthy pencil of an evil author. In a scene representing certain returned Irish prisoners, one man is represented as kneeling in the most slavish and abject attitude, while the face of all are represented in such a hideous deformity, that humanity has, thank God, nothing equal to it. For the profile of one of my countrymen the artist seems to have studied an ape or baboon! This is, certainly, a strange way of complimenting us, making us the laughing stock of a nation, and then asking us for your votes for such true friends. 'Save us from our friends,' we may well exclaim."

In Clinton county, Kentucky, they have a Scott Glee Club, who are great manufacturers of Whig enthusiasm. One of their refrains has a chorus thus:

Down the Looce,
Kill 'em—kill 'em!
Give 'em a—h—h!
With Scott and Graham.

Whig Planks for 1882.

A correspondent of the Western papers sums the different planks of the Whig platform, as follows:

North Plank.

South Plank.

East Plank.

West Plank.

Confidential Plank.

"Native Americanism," where there are no foreigners.

"God bless the poor foreigners," where the foreigners are abundant.

"Liberty of conscience," where Catholics are numerous.

"Cut the throat of every Catholic in the country," where there are no Catholics.

General Plank.

"Lie to secure votes; swallow all ills for the sake of popularity."

"Condemn the Democratic party for prosecuting wars with Great Britain and Mexico, and then support for President a man who has no other merit than the applause he won by discharging his duty as a military man."

"Declare the people of the United States ungrateful, if they do not elect so great a patriot as Gen. Scott, but say nothing of his having received a fine salary for twenty or thirty years for sitting in his easy chair at Washington, doing nothing."

"Swear that Gen. Scott is the only man in the country capable of discharging the duties of President, but never mention the fact of his having had no experience as a statesman."

"Seal the lips of all the candidates that they may not commit themselves upon any subject, and then call upon the freedom of the country to admire the firmness, independence, and consistency of your candidates."

"Represent Gen. Scott with free-soil face to the North, a compromise resolution pinned to his back for the South, let one foot crush proslavery and religious intolerance, and the other be placed upon the necks of foreigners, and then declare if the freedom of the country don't make Scott President of the United States, the country will be lost—liberty become a by-word and a reproach, and the great American people be doomed to perpetual slavery."

More Ruin.
The Newburyport Herald says: "We have a hint from a well informed source that Mr. Lawrence returns from England at the request of some of his business associates in Massachusetts, who desire his advice and assistance in consummating some of the important manufacturing operations which have been in embryo for some years, and in which he and they are largely interested. Among these is the Essex Company at Lawrence, which is conducting its operations on a gigantic scale, and is now engaged as one of its works in constructing an enormous mill 600 feet long, for the manufacture of Burege de Leines, an article not before attempted in this country. This mill, it is stated, will require but a million of dollars to complete it; but it is the opinion of many that to complete and operate it will require double that amount of capital. As it is a new undertaking, it is of course liable to a very losing operation, and it is not unlikely that the knowledge and skill displayed in its construction and management, as well as the state of the times."

Does any rational man believe that Abbot Lawrence & Co. will expend a couple of millions in extending their manufacturing operations unless there was a prospect of large profits? Then, prices under the present tariff are sufficient to encourage such immense outlay, if the Essex Company now declare from 20 to 30 per cent. annual dividend, how much more protection ought they to have? What is a reasonable per cent. on capital employed in manufacturing? How heavy a tax are consumers willing to bear in its behalf? These are questions which should be pondered well.—Burlington (Vt.) Sentinel.

Gen. Scott and Black Hawk.
The Whigs have tried many ways to prove Gen. Scott's qualifications for the Presidency, but without effect. "Recently," however," says the Unionist, "they have been more fortunate. They have discovered that Black Hawk, the Indian Chief, had a high opinion of Gen. Scott's qualifications; and we must confess that the savage chief reasoned more honestly from the lights before him, than the better clad and more civilized men who would, after their recent experience, make the General-in-Chief of the army, the Chief Magistrate of the Union."

"Black Hawk had been taught from his infancy to scorn the arts of peace as only fit for squaws, to look with scorn and contempt on all civil employments and qualifications, to judge of a man's talents by counting the scalps which hung at his belt, and to estimate the quantity and quality of his brains by the size of his limbs and the strength of his muscles. There is fitness in bringing forward Black Hawk's testimony."

"A nomination which was produced by the sinister influence of an incendiary faction, and which is sustained by appeals to the worst passions of men, should have the endorsement of a savage chief, who contemned peaceful industry and honest labor as degrading, and who regarded war as the noblest employment on earth, the tinsel of a military uniform as more beautiful than the robes of wisdom, and a bloody scalp as the proudest trophy which could be worn by man."

Parson Brownlow, of the Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig, talks after this fashion in regard to the prospects of the Scott party in that State: The Parson is a Fillmore Whig, and hence, has no particular sympathy for the Democratic nominee:

"WHAT WILL TENNESSEE DO?—This question is asked on all hands, and frequently the inquiry is made of us, by letter, and from a distance. We reply, that Tennessee will go for Pierce and King, by not less than 5,000 votes of a majority."

"The vote of Tennessee, in a long, strong, and straight pull, upon a thorough canvass of both parties last summer, was so close, that the Whig ticket only triumphed by about 1,600 of a majority. In that contest, the Whig party went into the field with unaided ranks. They now go into the Scott fight with divided ranks and councils, and they must inevitably be beaten. To carry this State, every Whig vote is wanted, in every county, but they cannot be had. There will be a falling off in every strong Whig county, and when the returns come in from the whole State, Scott will be where he ought to be, greatly behind in the contest. Mark our prediction, and treasure it up, for we charge nothing for it!"

An Apt Illustration.
In General Scott's "American" communication, it will be recollected, he submits a draft of a law embodying his view, on the subject of naturalization, which he proposes for the consideration of Congress. In that law he deprives all foreigners of the right to vote except such as shall have served two years in the army or navy. At a late meeting of the Democratic Club at Evansville, one of the speakers illustrated his extraordinary proposition of Gen. Scott's as follows:

"Now, gentlemen, here is my friend B., who is a German, and whom you all know as a good and worthy citizen, and who doubtless loves his adopted country, as much as any native citizen. Mr. B., however, is unfortunate. Nature was not so kind to him as to those of us whom she has made sound in limb. He is a cripple in both feet. This would prevent him serving in the army or navy—and thus Mr. B., good and worthy man as he is, could not become an American citizen if Gen. Scott's views were carried out."—New Albany Ledger.

Another Come Outer.
James S. Jones, Esq., son of the late Daniel D. Jones, editor of the Madison Banner, has, on attaining his majority, renounced Whiggery, and arrayed himself on the side of Pierce, King, and Democracy. Mr. J. addressed the young men of Madison on Saturday evening, in an able argumentative speech, which is highly spoken of by the Courier.—New Albany Ledger.

HE NEVER KNEW IT.—In a recent speech, Hon. Thomas F. Marshall remarked: "They tell me that Mr. Pierce was a member of Congress when I was; it may be, but if he was I never knew it."—Scott Paper.

Not unlikely, Mr. Marshall, for according to your own confession, you did not draw a sober breath while you were in Congress. Mr. Pierce was quite fortunate in escaping your notice.—Newark Eagle.

The man who was afraid of a "fire in the rear" was also afraid of "B" in the front when Old Hickory talked wolfish. Who "faints?"

A Senator in a Fix.

Senator Smith of Connecticut has placed himself in a very unpleasant position by descending, in company with several other Whig Senators and Representatives to a very mean piece of trickery, to induce a belief, in sections of the country where they were not known, that they were influential Democratic members of Congress, repudiating the Democratic nomination. The subject was introduced in the Senate, on Tuesday, and the whole trick exposed, to the disgrace of the Hon. Senator from Connecticut.

The Argue in which we find the discussions, thus remarks:

Senator Smith, of Connecticut, appears in an unenviable attitude in the sketch of the debate in the Senate which we give to-day.

It may be necessary to say in explanation, that Mr. Smith, with other Whig members of the Senate and House, got up and published a card or circular to which they appended their names, and under their franks, circulated it in certain sections where their political character was not supposed to be very well known—the purport of which was that they had determined to withhold their support from Pierce and King. The affair was a paraphrase of the card of certain other Whig members of Congress, in which they proclaimed their determination to withhold their support from Scott and Graham.

It was designed, and well calculated to give the false impression that the signers were prominent Democratic members of Congress, and had repudiated the candidate of the Democratic party.

Puerile and paltry as this expedient in itself was, and unbecoming if not disgraceful to the "grave and revered Senator" and his co-signers—it assumed the character of a designed deception, when instead of being left to run its course in the public prints, where its franker could be seen and exposed, it was privately circulated by some of the signers, into unknown parts, as an authentic and veritable document, as truly defining the position of certain prominent Democrats, and in all respects everything that it purported to be.

Mr. Smith, it appears, the Whig Senator from Connecticut, was one of those who had thus franked this pretended Democratic pronouncement—and that when asked if this was so, he blustered and evaded the inquiry—but virtually confessed to the attempted imposition! What a position this for a United States Senator! A fitting representative, truly, of the party to which he belongs.

The city mills of Richmond, Va., require more than 10,000 bushels of wheat a day to keep them constantly in operation.

The North Mississippi Union thinks that—"He who holds the bullet sent, May live to run for President."

THE CINCINNATI GAZETTE.
Daily, $3; Tri-Weekly, $5; Weekly, $2—clubs of Twenty to J. C. WRIGHT, C. J. WRIGHT, L. B. BRUN, Editors and Proprietors.

Incorporated and doing business under the name of THE CINCINNATI GAZETTE COMPANY, 5,000 New Subscribers in Three Years.

THE CINCINNATI GAZETTE COMPANY desire to invite attention to their several Newspaper issues above mentioned, and ask for the same the patronage of the People of the West, to the especial interest of which the paper is devoted. The senior editor is John C. Wright, who for twelve years has been in charge. His long residence in the West has given him various positions, public and private relations with the people of the West, has made him familiar with their wants and necessities. Besides we have five other editors who have been of particular departments. As a further claim to the support of the West in preference to Eastern papers, the Gazette is PRINTED IN CINCINNATI ON STEAM PRESSES.

Supplied with the latest intelligence from the sea-board, IN A DAY AND A HALF, and from other places in a correspondingly short time.

In Telegraphic Communications with all parts of the country. Having Correspondents of the most reliable character in Europe, Washington, New York, and other cities.

This paper must reach Western people with the news earlier than any other paper published in the West.

We have also engaged the services of E. D. MAXFIELD, Miss ALICE CARY, Mrs. STOWE, and many others, who contribute Miscellaneous, Statistical, Scientific, Horticultural, Financial, and Commercial News.

We are determined to be behind no other paper, and will not spare money or labor to make our paper valuable to every one, male or female.

The Gazette has been established SIXTY YEARS, and has grown in confidence as a reading and advertising paper. Our establishment has changed from a log cabin to a large six story building, and our press has been greatly improved. The old fashioned land presses have been discarded, and steam presses introduced. We now have six power presses driven by steam, and many card, hand, and other presses, and our printing is as good as formerly, the number has gradually swelled to two hundred; our expenses have increased from ten dollars per week to one thousand, and instead of conducting but one branch of the business, we now undertake almost any kind of work pertaining to the art of printing. We can fill orders for Newspapers, Book-work, all kinds of Job Printing, Binding, Lithography, Wood Engraving, Stereotyping, &c. We state this to show our onward progress.

OUR DAILY PAPER
Contains a much larger amount of reading than any other Cincinnati daily paper. We devote special pains to getting accurate and reliable news—we are particularly careful to avoid personalities and vulgarities—we seek to give news—we treat our readers as if they were intelligent men, and give them such information bearing on the subjects they would wish to enlighten the mind.

The CINCINNATI GAZETTE will maintain its position as a leading Whig paper in the West, and its proprietors and editors have, through a series of fifty years, been the staunch friends and advocates of those principles known as Whig principles. They do not permit their paper blindly to follow the behests of any—nor blindly advocate every measure of Party without inquiry, whether right or wrong. While we pursue that which is right, we will follow the dictates of no one.

The Commercial News of the Daily Gazette is very full, and accurately made up from the books of the Merchants' Exchange, and all the best sources of information, by one who devotes his whole time to the subject; and we give all the Financial and Commercial News a business man may want.

As an Advertising medium, the Gazette stands foremost. Its yearly advertisers number near five hundred, and our advertising charges will reach $100 per day. Our number of transient advertisers are very numerous.

Our TRI-WEEKLY contains all the news of the Daily. It is the largest, best, and cheapest in the West.

Our WEEKLY can be had, as may be seen, for $1.00 per annum. We commend, however, as most satisfactory and independent, single subscriptions at $2. This costs a little more, but is less troublesome and more satisfactory.

We will adhere to the claims of this paper to the support of the West. Without the least relaxing in our exertions to make the Political department of the Gazette worthy of public confidence, we will devote our attention to the care of the Commercial and Financial departments, and the departments of Local and General News, we have determined to make increased exertions to render our columns set apart for MISCELLANEOUS READING, more acceptable.

In this department we will always be found a carefully chosen menagerie of Tales, Poetry, Moral Essays, Descriptive and Historical Sketches, Edifying and Humorous Extracts from Current Literature, and a variety of other interesting and useful matter, and a column of amusing and instructive Selections for the benefit of the juvenile members of the Home Fireside. We will leave neither space nor expense untended, to render our paper entertaining and useful to the Business and Family Circle.

We often, as illustrations, introduce Wood Cuts, of model houses and distinguished persons and places.

Our Editorial comments are such, that in all departments of our establishment we can offer a guarantee of ability, correctness, and dispatch. Few Weeklies in the United States contain more matter, and we have none more than any Weekly from Cincinnati, and each Weekly is equal to 200 pages of a new volume—and none are made up with so great an expenditure of labor and money, especially for the purpose of supplying material of peculiar importance to Western Readers, and of properly presenting and consistently advocating the great Commercial and Social interests of this section of the Union.

TERMS.
DAILY, payable half-yearly.....$8 00
TRI-WEEKLY, payable after six months of each year.....5 00
WEEKLY, $2.00 in advance; 2.50 during the year, or at the end of the year.....3 00

THE GAZETTE TO CLUBS.
For the cash in advance, we will send the following number of Weeklies: 100 copies for $100, and for each other, from $10 to $100, 1 25 20 copies for $20, and for each other, from $20 upwards.....1 00
Our rates are made up of the cost of the paper, and of the proportionate rates and so that the time expires with the others of the Club.

AGENTS AND PROSPECTUS.
Postmasters and Free Papers.—We make all Postmasters agents of the Cincinnati Gazette, and request of them to obtain and forward subscribers for us, and we will pay the regular commission on all they obtain.

We will also send to any Postmaster our Weekly, free, who will act as our agent, and will keep our Prospectus posted up in his office, and will in having it put and kept in other places, if he will designate his wish to do so.

EXCHANGES.
We exchange our Weekly with pleasure with any of our Weekly friends, and we will exchange our Weekly with any Weekly from Cincinnati, and each Weekly is equal to 200 pages of a new volume—and none are made up with so great an expenditure of labor and money, especially for the purpose of supplying material of peculiar importance to Western Readers, and of properly presenting and consistently advocating the great Commercial and Social interests of this section of the Union.

J. B. FITLER & CO.,

(SUCCESSORS TO J. B. FITLER & CO.)

UNDERTAKERS AND COFFIN MAKERS.

And Manufacturers of every kind and quality of

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE.

INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA.

RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of this city and the surrounding country, that they will continue to do business at the old stand, and will hope to merit and receive a continuance of the very liberal patronage which has been heretofore extended to the establishment.

The great superiority of our Building and Machinery rendering our facilities for business such as successful competition by any other establishment is difficult, if not impossible.

TURNING.

A superior Steam Engine for turning, etc., kept constantly in operation. All work of this description done with great facility.

Every kind of Side Boards, Chairs, Tables, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Stands, etc., etc., kept constantly on hand, and manufactured to order at the shortest notice, and on the best terms.

UNDERTAKING.

We shall continue to give our special attention to this branch of our business, with a view to release the friends of deceased persons from the indignities of robbing attending the death of a friend, and would state that they are prepared to undertake the whole business of Funerals, if desired, or any part thereof, on reasonable terms; such as furnishing either a one or two horse Hearse, built after the most approved style, also, Carriages, and every other requisite pertaining to the business.

PATENT CORPSE PRESERVER.—They will continue to use this valuable apparatus. The object for which it is intended is perfectly to preserve the body for a length of time, without being in any way offensive to delicacy, or unseemly in appearance.

The value of such a machine cannot be estimated, but in those cases feeling the necessity for the preservation of a friend and among those who have been compelled to use it on account of the fast decay of their friends, a general and pleasing satisfaction has been given, for none can speak too highly of an apparatus of such importance and unusual inventiveness, and all others who desire to delay Funerals until the arrival of distant relatives, or to make suitable preparation for interment, can, by the use of this machine, preserve the body in a perfectly moderate state, allowing all to gaze upon it.
